The Legend of Sauta Claus. This popular name of the saint who presides over Christmas and the toy gifts of that welcome reason, is derived from St. Nicholas. The legend of his first appearance is an Italian one. Accor-ding to this: a shoemaker named Giraldi, who lived in Ferrara, was so misorably poor anat his labor from day to day barely kept his family from starvation, and he was unable to give even a small dowry to his three pretty daughters. not shought proper to marry without a dowry; and thus the young girls, though each had an tomirer, were compelled to remain single. Their father, however, went every morning to the shrine to pray to his patron saint, St. Nicholas, that he would work a miracle to relieve him from his distress. One of his nearest neighbors, a rich morchant, who chanced one day to overhear his simple petition, ridiculed the idea of his expecting the saint to take care of his danghters, and recommended him to choose a patron saint who would be able to do something for him. "Mine," he said, "is the Jew-Bnonsjuto; he lends money at two por cent. a month; and if you know now to manage, you may make four with it. He is not so usual as

The poor man was shocked at his impions speech, and assured the merchant that his religious faith could nover be shaken. He went every day to church, notwithstanding the other's mockery.

It was now Christmas day, when the merchant and the Jew settled up their yearly accounts. Buhis own hands introduced the three hundred gold pieces into the inside, and sewed them up. He then sent the duck to the merchant as a Christ-

When he recovered from his surprise, he would have taken the money back, but his wife persuaded him that, as he had bought the duck, it was rightfully his own. He therefore divided the sum between the two suitors for his two closes danghters.

The merchant, after some days, discovered the loss of the three bundred ducates, and went to the shoemaker to demand the money, which was refused. The cause came before the magistrate, who was a pious man, and heard with indignation how cruelly the poor man had been resided about his religion. His sequence was that Graldi should keep the money, and that the merchant and daughter.

Thus reduced in health, and nuable to pursue his profession with any degree of regularity, his pecuniary wants rendered bim unable to avail himself of many little necessities and attentions so needful to the afflicted. Flattered by the illusive syren, consumption, it was but a day or two ago that he was impressed with the consciousness that his sands of life wore almost out. With the inherent desire, which seems to be universal, to die among one's early friends, his failing heart turned homeward. Ever in his sad struggle between disease and pennry and to apply even for that charity in which he had a right to confide. His wish, however, was inadverteatly expressed; and, highly to the credit of the compositors in the news department of our office, they gave him a sam of money sufficient expenses to his home, beyond the Allegheny Monntains. Tesently purchased the well known Flouring Mill of E. A. Mehaliey, now offers the same for sale on the most favorable terma.
This establishment is one of the best of the kind in the State. It has a large run of custom from seven surronnoing counties; is located in one of the best wheat growing regions in Kentucky, and has the reputation in market of making a superior article of flour, and no brand stands as high as Mehalfey's in Louisville. The flour is much cought after there, and the fact of its well earned reputation is indeed no small consideration to those who may be the purchasers.
In connection with said mill, there are also two double Carding Machines and Picker of the most superior construction. The reputation for excellency of work is well knewn, and the run of enstemis large and TOBACCO-The receipts of leaf have been very light iois, are to Nov. 16, and from Guayaquel to Debeing chiefly from wagons. Receipts principally of very inferior luge or mixed hhds, and prices, consequently, did not rule quite as high as they would have lone had the quality been good. So great, however, is the damand, that even inferior hads of "trash," and 'Inferior new," found ready purchasers, and the lowest prices realized were $4.50 for factory scraps, and $6.50 goad quality leaf and lugs.

We quote lugs, common and light weight, $8 35@49 59; do, fall shipping weight, $8 50@39 50; medium leaf $10@$11 50; prime leaf $12@$13 50; extra choise manufactoring leaf $14 00 to the highest price obtained this season for Kentucky $21 75, and for Virginia $24 50, epending entirely upon the quality and competition

Sales made below the above quotations are light eight lugs. Such prices are only obtained for inferior lugs or trash, and are no guide for the regular grades.

The sales of the week amount to 64 hbds, and the llowing quetations exhibit the range of prices ob-
